

Transport from Madrid airport to AEMET

By Metro (underground railway): (highly recommended):

- Line 8 of "Metro" connects the airport with Nuevos Ministerios (final stop), the trip taking 15 minutes. There are metro stations in Terminal 2, within walking distance from Terminals 1 & 3, and in Terminal 4. Trains depart every 5 minutes.
- Once in Nuevos Ministerios change to line 6 (5 minutes underground walk for this change). It's a circular line and you must take the westbound direction to the third station, Vicente Aleixandre, or the fourth, Ciudad Universitaria. Both stations are at 10 minutes walk to AEMET.
- See the map of the area on the image bellow and the map of the Metro network in the attached link. The airport is in the upper right corner of the network map. Metro fare for a single ticket from the airport is 5 euros (including airport supplement). The ticket must be charged in a rechargeable card that must be purchased at the same vending machines, and costs 2.50 euros. Several tickets can be recharged in the same card.

By taxi:

- Regular taxis are available right outside the terminals. A run to the AEMET HQs can take 30 minutes in normal traffic conditions and it has a fixed cost of 33 euros.

Transport from Madrid airport to downtown Madrid

By Metro (underground railway): (highly recommended):

- Line 8 of "Metro" connects the airport with the rest of the Metro Network. There are metro stations in Terminal 2, within walking distance from Terminals 1 & 3, and in Terminal 4. Trains depart every 5 minutes. Line 8 ends at Nuevos Ministerios station in downtown Madrid, where you can transfer to other metro lines and other means of transport.
- See the map of the Metro network among the attached links. The airport is in the upper right corner of the network map. Metro fare for a single ticket from the airport is 5 euros, including airport supplement. The ticket must be charged in a rechargeable card that must be purchased at the same vending machines, and costs 2.50 euros. Several tickets can be recharged in the same card.

By commuter train:

- Line C1 of "Cercanías" (commuter trains) connects Terminal 4 with Chamartín and Atocha mainline train stations. It can also be used to reach Nuevos Ministerios in an alternative way (although it has less frequency than Metro and takes longer). Trains depart every 30 minutes and the trip costs 2.60 euros (you can pay at the turnstiles by credit card or load the ticket onto a reusable card, which costs 1 euro).

By bus:

- Line 203 (Exprés Aeropuerto) connects every airport terminal with Cibeles Sq. in the heart of Madrid and Atocha Railway Station. Line 200 connects the terminals with Avenida de América, the main interchange station of Eastern Madrid. The fare for line 203 is 5 euros and it works on a 24 hour basis.

By taxi:

- Regular taxis are available right outside the terminals. A trip to downtown Madrid takes about 30 minutes in normal traffic conditions, and if the hotel is located inside the M-30 motorway, it has a fixed price of 33 euros.

How to reach AEMET Headquarters

- The address is Leonardo Prieto Castro, 8 in Ciudad Universitaria (University City), not far from Madrid downtown.
- The building is located in a small hill behind to the Faculty of Chemistry. It can be easily identified from the big satellite antenna.
- Nearest Metro (underground railway) stations are Vicente Aleixandre and Ciudad Universitaria, both in Line 6 (the grey circular line). From these stations the AEMET can be reached in about 10 minutes on foot.
- Buses number 82 and 132 have stops at 5 minutes walking distance of AEMET. Both lines depart from Moncloa Square in front of the big building of the Air Force Headquarters ("Ejercito del Aire") and of Metro station Moncloa (lines 3 & 6). Bus fare can be paid to the driver directly (1.50 euros, no change given for more than 5 euros, or you can pay using your credit card), or by pre-paid tickets. A 10 trip ticket can be bought in all Metro stations at a cost of 7.30 euros. It has to be charged in the rechargeable card that can be purchased at the same vending machines, and costs 2,50 euros.
